The author describes the start of his office work in Kharkiv, the team's subsequent work in Dnipro, and the shift from a Russian audience to one in Kazakhstan. The report does not specify which particular group he belonged to. [\[1\]](#)

The sequence of events described by the author includes starting work in Kharkiv, the team's relocation to Dnipro following the outbreak of full-scale war, and a change in the target audience. Kazakhstan is cited as the subsequent focus of operations. The presence of clients in the country does not necessarily mean that the office itself was physically located within its territory.
