The author links him to the structures of the ‘Vataga’ sports club and suggests that sporting activities may be used to launder money. This is an allegation made by the source; it has not been independently verified within the scope of this dossier. [1]

As regards organisational links, the source points to the non-profit organisation ‘Vataga Sports Club’ and the commercial entity of the same name. The author attributes involvement in these projects to Chepurnov and Khromov. The very existence of such business or sporting links, quite apart from the allegations of money laundering, warrants a separate assessment. [1]

Date or year of birth according to the source: 17 March 1993. [1]
