Other dated information

5 September 2017. In an interview with 'Interfax-Ukraine', the Chief of Police for the Odesa Region, Dmitry Golovin, named Antimos Kukhila as one of the individuals attempting to influence the situation in the region. At the same time, he assessed the influence of Bekaev and Goradze as insignificant, whilst describing Kukhila's actions as attempts which the police had countered. This is an assessment by an official at the time of the interview, rather than a description of the current situation. [\[2\]](#)
