Status: Public Prosecutor's Office — according to the 2020 declaration

Other names: Rustam Sutko; Rustam Choloevich Sutko

Rustam Sutko is an employee of the Public Prosecutor's Office whose career history can be traced through electronic declarations. This profile focuses on verified information regarding his public service and the limits of the available information on his alleged connections.

Documented position

In his annual declaration for 2020, Rustam Choloevich Sutko stated that his place of work was the Prosecutor General's Office of Ukraine, and his position was Deputy Head of Department and Head of Division. In the document, he is classified as a prosecutor, investigator or inquiry officer. The position stated relates to the reporting period of the declaration and is not used as confirmation of his current place of employment. [\[1\]](#)

The existence of earlier declaration documents allows this entry to be regarded as part of his career history, rather than a random newspaper mention. At the same time, the declaration is intended primarily to disclose information required by law, rather than to provide a comprehensive account of his education, appointments and all professional duties. What has not yet been established

Publications about the Mamoyan family contain claims regarding its links with representatives of law enforcement agencies. A matching middle name or a shared circle of references is insufficient to identify a specific individual. In this profile, Sutko's documented employment with the Public Prosecutor's Office is not presented as evidence of involvement in third-party commercial interests.

His current position, full career history and procedural status in any case mentioned in the original article have not been confirmed in this verified compilation. Consequently, this profile does not contain the labels 'suspect', 'accused' or 'wanted'. It may be supplemented with appointment orders, official biographical data and verifiable court documents.
