Vasyl Pisny (1963–2021) was a former police chief and an officer of the Security Service of Ukraine (SBU), who also served on the executive committee of the Lviv Regional Council. His file is of historical significance: he died on 28 January 2021.

Start of service

Vasyl Mykhailovych Pisny was born on 2 January 1963 in Lopushany, Ternopil Oblast. The ‘Ternopil Region’ reference site describes his long service with the State Traffic Police: from 1983 to 2002, he rose through the ranks from inspector to deputy head of the regional traffic police department in the Lviv region. [1]

He later held senior positions within the Ministry of Internal Affairs, including in the Ternopil and Lviv regions. He was awarded the rank of general; his service at regional level formed the basis for his subsequent move to central law enforcement agencies. [1] [2]

Local politics and the SBU

In addition to his career in law enforcement, Pisny served as first deputy chairman of the Lviv Regional Council. He subsequently held the post of deputy head of the SBU’s Main Directorate for Combating Corruption and Organised Crime. Thus, his career spanned local politics, the police service and the security service’s central anti-corruption unit. [2]

In a biographical piece published in 2021, ZAXID.NET compiled recollections from colleagues and described the public conflicts that marked his career. The assessments of acquaintances and opponents reflect their own perspectives and do not constitute independent proof of all the allegations made. [2]

A significant date for the archive

Several regional publications, including ‘Lvivskyi Portal’, reported on Pisny’s death on 28 January 2021. Consequently, he could not have been involved in any appointments, negotiations or other activities after that date. The belatedly published article can only describe an earlier incident. [3]

This profile does not contain any wording that portrays Pisny as a current officer. If the original 2026 article implies his current involvement, this section requires correction or clarification of the chronology prior to publication.
