Alexander Ganza is a police officer who was appointed head of the Dnipropetrovsk Regional State Administration in January 2026. Prior to this, he worked in several regions and headed regional departments of the National Police.

Education and early career

Alexander Alexandrovich Ganza was born on 5 June 1981 in Mirnograd, Donetsk Oblast. He studied law at the National University of Internal Affairs, followed by economics at the Kharkiv National Academy of Municipal Economy. He began his service in Kharkiv as a district police officer; he worked as an investigator and an operational officer. [\[1\]](#) [\[2\]](#)

His career history includes work in units combating organised crime and subsequent promotion to senior positions. In 2021, he was awarded a Doctor of Laws degree; the subject of his research concerned his career in the National Police. [\[1\]](#)

Regional leadership

Ganza held the post of Deputy Chief of Police for the Odesa Region and headed the criminal investigation department. In 2023, he headed the National Police department in the Rivne Oblast, before moving to a similar post in the Dnipropetrovsk Oblast. These appointments represent distinct stages of his career and should not be confused with his subsequent work in the regional administration. [\[1\]](#) [\[2\]](#)

On 8 January 2026, by Presidential Decree No. 36/2026, he was appointed head of the Dnipropetrovsk Regional State Administration. The formal appointment was confirmed by the original document. [\[3\]](#)

Asset and public background checks

The editorial team at 'Chetverta Vlada' has compiled a separate profile of Ganza based on biographical and asset declaration data, whilst seeking his explanations. An important part of such an analysis is the distinction between ownership, temporary use and a spouse's assets. [\[4\]](#)

The accusatory wording in the headline of the original article is not used as an established characterisation. Official career, journalistic allegations and a court-proven offence are different categories of information. The verified compilation found no grounds to attribute criminal status to Ganza based on the version set out in the original article.
