Several substances and several routes

The narrative dates the events to 2021. According to published reports, Essenberg and his accomplices were involved in the illegal manufacture, handling and distribution of cocaine, amphetamine and methamphetamine. The transport of drugs from Spain to Estonia is described separately. [1]

The Polish aspect of the case relates to the trafficking and manufacture of amphetamine and mephedrone. It also mentions preparations for the production of mephedrone for subsequent distribution in Finland. These incidents cannot be reduced to a single consignment or a single substance. [1]

Wanted information

The source notes links to Spain and Poland; Thailand is listed as his last known location, rather than his current, confirmed whereabouts. The summary field for the sentence has been rounded to 12 years, whilst the narrative contains a more precise figure. The profile was updated on 21 May 2026. [1]
