Scope of the published charge

Law enforcement agencies describe the period from an unspecified starting point until 18 September 2025. The source details the route and his alleged involvement in the group, but does not specify the exact weight of the consignment, the means of transport or the distribution of proceeds. [1]

The profile states the maximum possible sentence as 15 years' imprisonment. This is not a sentence that has been handed down to Lucht: the procedural stage is indicated as an ongoing investigation. It would be a mistake to treat the upper limit of the sentence as a sentence that has already been imposed. [1]
