The route specified in the case description

According to published reports, Pozharitsky, together with his accomplices, organised the transport of a large quantity of cannabis from Germany via Poland to Lithuania. Here, the three countries are linked by the route described, rather than by a mere coincidence of surnames appearing in different publications. [1]

The brief description does not specify the exact weight, the case number or the name of the organisation. These gaps are not filled with speculation: the confirmed details relate to the conviction for smuggling and the ongoing public search. [1]

Photograph and validity of the entry

The European list also notes a possible connection to Spain. The most recent update to his profile is dated 22 October 2025; at the time of checking, it remains active on the wanted list. The file retains the original spelling of the name to facilitate searches in foreign sources. [1]
