This is confirmed by an official statement

The agency describes international cooperation regarding the search for and extradition of suspects. Another wanted individual is mentioned in the same report alongside Ustyun – these are two different people with different alleged roles. Information regarding another person’s financial affairs cannot be applied to Ustyun without further clarification. [1][2][3]

A Red Notice had been issued prior to his handover to the Turkish authorities. Following confirmation of his return, the correct description is that he is a suspect who has been detained and extradited, rather than a person who remains at large in the Emirates. [1][2][3]
