What offences are listed in the wanted notice?

The DEA's individual profile lists cocaine importation, conspiracy to operate a criminal enterprise, and possession of, or conspiracy to possess, machine guns. The jurisdiction is listed as the Southern District of New York. Among the aliases published are Alexander Mendoza, Porky and Gordo. [1][2][3]

In a separate file on Víctor Eduardo Morales Celaya, the FBI identifies Archaga as his close associate and links their alleged activities to the leadership of MS-13. Such references make it possible to trace the officially documented links between the individuals involved, without conflating the individual charges. [1][2][3]

Why are different spellings retained in the file?

The variants 'Yulan Adonay' and 'Yulian Andony' appear on the websites of various US agencies. Both are useful for search purposes, but they should not be regarded as two different wanted individuals. The DEA has published his photograph and his year of birth – 1982. [1][2][3]
