The theory regarding interstate shipments

According to the FBI, the organisation transported heroin, cocaine and cannabis from Las Vegas and San Diego to New York. Tolentino was charged on 3 July 2012 in the Southern District of New York. The published file does not disclose the individual weights of the shipments nor does it name him as the cartel’s leader. [1]

Tolentino went into hiding before his trial, which was scheduled for 30 September 2013. A warrant was issued for his arrest on the same day for failing to appear in court. Consequently, the charges against him combine the original drug-related offences with the subsequent breach of his obligation to appear in court. [1]
