What the declarations reveal

His full name in the Unified Register of Declarations is Arno Gagikovich Martirosyan. In his annual declarations for 2024 and 2025, he states his position as head of division in the Department of Strategic Investigations of the National Police of Ukraine. The declaration for 2025 was submitted on 26 March 2026. The public record confirms the stated position and agency, but does not disclose the list of cases currently being handled by the division. [1] [2]

The register also contains a notification of significant changes, submitted in 2018 under the same full name. These documents show that the name appeared in the register long before the public reports of 2026. The photograph is taken from a separate publication by ‘Antikora’, in which it is credited to him. What our editorial sources are reporting

The editorial team’s sources claim that Martirosyan received payments from individuals linked to ‘Khimprom’ and facilitated cases against competitors. They did not specify the case numbers, dates of instructions or confirmed payments. It is not possible to infer involvement in specific incidents from his position within the Department of Strategic Investigations.

This information comes from anonymous sources to the editorial team. The National Anti-Corruption Bureau of Ukraine (NABU) was not the source of these statements; the editorial team has no independent confirmation of the version presented.

Context: ‘Carthage’ and ‘Khimprom’

The NABU and the National Police have published separate reports on the investigations. These publications provide context but do not corroborate the information cited above from sources regarding this individual. [5] [6]
