Seydali Ernestovich Seytkhalilov (Ukrainian: Seytkhalilov Seydali Ernestovich), date of birth — 14 July 1998, according to the editorial source. In the Ukrainian corporate register, he is listed as a co-owner of ‘FERMA. UA’ LLC alongside Karina Koynash. The editorial source also links him to ‘Khimprom’ and claims that he is responsible for organising laboratories in the Kyiv region. [1]

Kyiv Oblast. What role did the source describe?

According to the editorial source, Seytkhalilov has been working for ‘Khimprom’ for a long time. The source describes his role as organisational and claims that he is responsible for setting up clandestine laboratories in the Kyiv region. The specific sites and the periods during which they operated have not yet been established. The editorial team has found no public notification of suspicion regarding this incident.

The SBU had previously reported on an operation against a ‘Khimprom’ unit in the Kyiv region. Seydali Seytkhalilov is not named in the agency’s statement. It is therefore impossible to determine whether the source’s account relates to that operation. [2]

Half of ‘FERMA. UA’

The company profile for the Ukrainian limited liability company ‘FERMA. UA’ (EGRPOU 42913474) lists two shareholders. Seydali Seithalilov and Karina Koynash each hold a 50 per cent stake. Each shareholder’s contribution to the authorised capital is stated as 1,045,000 UAH. The company’s declared activities include milk processing and the wholesale trade in food products. The incorporation details confirm a business connection with Koynash. The theory regarding the laboratories is based on information from a source close to the editorial team. [1]

Seithalilov’s full name also appears in a 2018 Kyiv municipal document concerning an application for the placement of outdoor advertising. In the document, he is listed as a sole trader. This is a historical record of his business activities. [3]

Connection to Ilkhan Seytkhalilov

The editorial source describes Seydali as a relative Ilkhan Ernest Ogly SeytkhalilovThe editorial team has not been able to establish the exact nature of this relationship from the available documents. The Turkish news agency DHA reported that Ilkhan was detained on 4 September 2026 in Belek, Antalya province. Ukrainian case No. 372/2868/21, mentioned in Ilkhan’s file, relates specifically to his procedural status. [4]
