Serhii Tymoshenko Listed in the Polish police's public database under the name TYMOSHENKO SERHII. Date of birth: 25 March 1997; nationality: Ukraine. The file is dated 9 August 2025. [1]

What does the charge of preparation mean?

The police station in the Bialolenka district of Warsaw cited Article 57(2). The wording of the record refers to aggravated offences involving cross-border trafficking or the unlawful placing of substances on the market. The police did not specify what particular preparatory acts Tymoshenko is alleged to have committed, nor did they describe a completed sale. [1] [2]

According to a source close to the editorial team

According to a source close to the editorial team, Serhii Tymoshenko was a member of the 'Khimprom' cartel and, as part of this activity, was involved in the sale of drugs in Poland. A key distinction for this version of events is the difference between alleged distribution and preparation, as indicated by the police. The source did not provide the editorial team with any dates or documents that would allow this information to be linked to the publicly available record. The editorial team has no independent confirmation of this connection.

Official Polish police record. The record allows you to check the grounds for the warrant and the details of the investigating unit.
