What the police stated regarding the drugs

The Criminal Investigation Department of the Przemysl Municipal Police cites Section 62(2), which provides for liability for the unlawful possession of a significant quantity of narcotic drugs or psychotropic substances. The record also lists the grounds under the Polish Criminal Code. It is not clear from this brief list that they arose in the context of a single operation. [1] [2]

According to a source close to the editorial team

A source close to the editorial team links Roman Ahronovych to 'Khimprom' and states that his duties included selling drugs on Polish territory. The information provided to the editorial team does not specify to whom or through which channels he allegedly sold the substances. The document from Przemyśl does not name the organisation and provides no grounds for linking the other charges to the alleged drug dealing. The editorial team has no independent confirmation of this connection.
