Reason given by the Słupsk police

The First Police Station in Słupsk cites Part 1 of Article 62 of the Act on Combating Drug Addiction. This provision relates to the unlawful possession of drugs or psychotropic substances. The record does not specify the time of the alleged incident nor does it describe the acquisition or transfer of the substances. [1] [2]

According to a source close to the editorial team

A source close to the editorial team claims that Ihor Lavrenko was a member of the 'Khimprom' cartel and that his role involved selling drugs in Poland. The source does not specify the period to which this activity relates. The date on the police website refers to the record and does not allow the alleged sales to be dated. The editorial team has no independent confirmation of this connection.

Official Polish police record. The record allows you to check the grounds for the warrant and the details of the investigating unit.
