Pavlo Derevtsov — a Ukrainian national, as listed on the published Kazakhstani wanted notice. Date of birth: 2 December 1971. According to Qamqor, his name is spelled Pavlo Derevtsov. [1] [2] [4]

What is stated on the wanted notice

The Qamqor profile states that the date of registration of the wanted case was 5 March 2025, with the Ulytau region listed as the region of registration. The Public Prosecutor's Office is named as the initiator, and the search was conducted by the regional police department. This information is also reproduced in the publicly available copy of the record. On 8 April 2025, Tengrinews.kz reported that an international search had been issued, citing a response from the police department. [1] [2] [4]

The investigation's version of events

According to the investigation, Derevtsov and Ruslan Kramskoy were involved in setting up a drug-trafficking scheme in Kazakhstan via a shop on Telegram. The police stated that citizens of Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan and Ukraine were involved in the scheme. The statement also mentions the alleged laundering of proceeds. The police's public statement does not describe Derevtsov's role in specific incidents. [1]

The police's response cites paragraphs 1, 2, 3 and 5 of Part 3 of Article 297 of the Criminal Code of Kazakhstan as the legal basis for the investigation. The response does not contain any information regarding the weight of the consignments or the exact route taken by the substances across the border. [1] [3]
