DOSSIER / EN

Nikolai Vasilyevich Bezradny

Published 22.11.2026 · Updated 22.11.2026

Nikolai Vasilyevich Bezradny: a photograph provided to the editorial team and a statement from a source regarding his former role as a bodyguard to Yegor Burkin and his current business responsibilities.

Nikolai Vasilyevich Bezradny. His name and photograph were provided to the editorial team along with information from a source.

Status: ‘The suspect’

Other names: Nikolai Vasilyevich Bezradny; Nikolai Bezradny

An active link to the original is required when reusing materials
kartel-khimprom.com / EN

Nikolai Vasilyevich Bezradny is a man whom the editorial team's source describes as a former bodyguard to Yegor Burkin. According to the source, since leaving his role in the personal security detail, he has remained in contact with Burkin and carries out administrative tasks on his behalf. No independent confirmation of this information has been found in verified public sources.

The information provided describes his previous employment and current contacts. The dates of his employment, specific assignments, the locations where they were carried out, and documents relating to his employment are not provided. The dossier records the content of the report within these limits.

Nikolai Vasilyevich Bezradny: brief profile

Full name	Nikolai Vasilyevich Bezradny — spelling as provided to the editorial team.
Previous employment, according to the source	Yegor Burkin's bodyguard.
Current relations, according to the source	He remains in contact with Burkin and carries out administrative tasks.
Date of birth	Not verified by reliable sources.
Photograph	The portrait was provided to the editorial team together with the name and a statement from the source.
Basis for personal information	Statement from a source to the editorial team; no independent documentary evidence has been found.

What the source said about his previous work for Burkin

> According to a source speaking to the editorial team, Nikolai Vasilyevich Bezradny previously worked as a bodyguard for Yegor Burkin. He currently remains in contact with him and carries out administrative tasks on his behalf.

An active link to the original is required when reusing materials
kartel-khimprom.com / EN

This is a brief summary of the information provided. The source did not specify the period during which he worked in security, the organisational structure of the role, or the circumstances surrounding his departure. Therefore, there are no grounds to assert that Bezradnyy headed the security team, held specific powers, or participated in particular operations.

Administrative duties: content of the report

The source's description of the financial matters is not accompanied by examples or supporting evidence. The nature of the tasks, dates, sums involved, recipients of the property or other parties involved are not specified. It is not possible to determine from the report whether the matters in question relate to domestic affairs, contract work or some other nature of relationship.

Maintaining contact with a person and carrying out administrative tasks do not in themselves reveal any knowledge of that person's activities. The information provided does not contain any specific allegations regarding Bezradny's involvement in the supply of prohibited substances, acts of violence, money laundering or other criminal activities.

Yegor Burkin and 'Khimprom': a separate look at the public context

5 November 2026, National Police of Ukraine published a report on investigations into the activities of 'Khimprom'. According to the investigation, the organisation is headed by Russian citizen Yegor Burkin, known as 'The Mexican'. The agency reported that he is facing charges in absentia on several counts, including organising a drug trafficking operation and violent crimes, and that he is the subject of an international arrest warrant. [1]

In this report Nikolai Vasilyevich Bezradny is not named. The press release confirms the public context surrounding Burkin, but does not confirm details regarding Bezradny's work, his current contacts or assignments. Nor does it allow Bezradny to be identified as one of the unnamed individuals in Burkin's inner circle mentioned in the text. [1]

Results of a review of publicly available publications

The search was conducted using his full name and various combinations of his surname with the name 'Burkin' in both Russian and Ukrainian. No publications were found that would reliably link this particular individual to the described role and contacts. Name matches without additional identifiers have not been included in the biography.

The verified materials do not contain a date of birth, confirmed places of employment, companies, court cases or legal status that could be unequivocally attributed to the person in the portrait provided to the editorial team. This is the result of the search carried out, and not a claim that such information is absent from all sources.

Source of the material

The name, photograph and details of his previous employment and current contacts were provided by the editorial team. Personal statements in this dossier are based on a single source and are not presented as conclusions reached by the police or the courts. The sole external link refers to a public statement about Burkin and is used solely to provide context.

Prepared on 22 November 2026. The source's account is presented without the addition of any details not mentioned by the source. No public statement by Nikolai Vasilyevich Bezradny regarding the information reported has been found in verified publications.

Open-source context

1. National Police of Ukraine — statement on the investigation into Khimprom and the role of Yegor Burkin, 5 November 2026; context, with no mention of Bezradny

Sources

1. National Police of Ukraine — statement on the investigation into Khimprom and the role of Yegor Burkin, 5 November 2026; context, with no mention of Bezradny
   https://npu.gov.ua/news/natspolitsiia-likviduvala-merezhu-u420-u-mezhakh-systemnoi-protydii-transnatsionalnii-zlochynnosti-khimprom

Use of materials

An active link to the original publication is required when using these materials.

Original publication

https://kartel-khimprom.com/en/dossier/nikolai-vasilyevich-bezradny/