In publication No. 2165, the source recounts the prosecution’s version of events regarding Boiko’s contacts with Serhiy Kropiva, whilst also setting out Boiko’s own position: he categorically denies any involvement in illegal activities or fraudulent call centres. This denial forms a significant part of the dossier. [1] [2]

The office-related theme in the publications is discussed alongside Boiko’s activities at the football club. The information on sport and the claim regarding his alleged patronage of call centres relate to different matters. Boiko’s own position, in which he denies any involvement in illegal activities, is presented alongside the allegations. [1] [2]
