In post No. 2081, the author explicitly names him as one of the high-ranking members of the '9999' office circle. The scale of the network stated in another post is the source's estimate, rather than an independently verified number of offices. [\[1\]](#) [\[2\]](#)

The recruitment drive described in this publication is dated to the summer of 2025 and covers two cities: Dnipro and Kyiv. The author describes working within the circle of a man known as Sayan. The stated scale of the entire network does not apply to any individual participant and does not imply that he managed all the units mentioned. [1] [2]

This material has been prepared by the editorial team's analysis department based on collected publications. The roles and connections described are based on information from the source; the mention of an individual does not imply their guilt or current legal status.
